DEAR EDITOR....

Traffic Editor
Torrance Press
Fines do not seem to be the answer to our traffic violations. Perhaps better results could be obtained by impounding the car from one to thirty days. If we had to do without the use of it for a few days each time maybe we might become educated.

Toy Collection Editor
Torrance Press
We wish to thank you and the Torrance Press for the toy collection of Harbor General hospital.
The paper and its readers have helped to make Christmas a little happier for those youngsters who cannot be home for the holidays.
We are deeply grateful for your generosity.
Sincerely,
Mrs. Phyllis J. Luzan
Corresponding Secretary

PERPLEXED READER Editor
Torrance Press
If you will check the front page of that scandal sheet, the Lomita News, the one my dog gets so much pleasure out of chewing up all over my neighbors lawn. Note, the letters to the editor, and I noticed Marti Fowler, "Miss Lomita," lives in Torrance and also goes to Torrance High school. Where did Lomita scrape up that so-called Lomita Civic league? Their road department is tops at tearing up roads but I have never seen any evidence of any good roads (ho, yes, I have, some of their better roads are Eshelman and Walnut down by Lomita Park.) I am sick, sick, of Lomita.

Show them that Torrance has two good papers, not just an editor's scratch sheet.

Appreciation Editor
Torrance Press
It is the end of the year and time to thank you for all the fine coverage and cooperation you have given the school district during 1956.
The Board of Education, the staff, the teachers, and the children in the Torrance schools appreciate it very much.
Yours very truly,
J. H. Hull

THANK YOU Editor
Torrance Press
I'm writing to thank you for choosing my "Dear Santa" letter as one of the winners and am very proud of my bike.
I would like also to thank Torrance Bicycle and Sports shop for giving me a beautiful bicycle to be proud of.
I know I shall have many pleasures with my bike.
Sincerely,
Patty Marrs

Woodcraft Rangers Editor
Torrance Press
Are you a parent? If so, we need you. The Woodcraft Rangers (Indian Tribes) of this area are growing so fast. Let's make room for more Rangers (boys) and Rangerettes (girls) by volunteering your services for one of the non-paying positions.
Giving of yourself is all we ask. Guide schools begin in January, 1957. For further information call Mrs. L. A. Walker, FA 8-8348, or Mrs. Rose Eakins, FA 8-5627.

YWCA COVERAGE Editor
Torrance Press.
On behalf of the board of directors of the Harbor Area YWCA, I am taking this opportunity to commend the Torrance Press for the excellent coverage of harbor area activities.
We appreciate the helpfulness of your staff and feel that this attitude is the evidence of the fine community service the paper renders.
Again we thank the Torrance Press for helping to promote activities for the good of the community.
Very truly yours,
Mrs. E. C. Spires, President
Harbor Area Board of Directors

IN APPRECIATION

Editor
Torrance Press
As the planet prepares to write "30" to 1956, I want to express my appreciation for the coverage which the Press have given El Camino college during the past 12 months.
While assisting the college in carrying its releases, you are, of course, also serving the large community of potential students and friends of the college who depend upon you for their information of campus activities. Your location in the rapidly-growing Torrance area, which already contributes a large percentage of our student and employee population of about 8,500 persons, makes your publication particularly significant to our reading public. With so many Torrance residents newcomers to Southern California, many of your readers are unfamiliar with the opportunities available in the junior college.
Cordially,
W. A. KAMRATH
Coordinator of Public Relations
El Camino College

TITO'S VISIT

Editor
Torrance Press
Answering your question of what I think as a former—even involuntary—Jugoslav citizen of the contemplated visit of Marshall Tito to the United States I believe that it would not be harmful if we talked bluntly with him.
Tito can not be measured in the same way like the other war criminals because he helped the Allies in a certain way to defeat Hitler. True we would have defeated Nazi Germany also without Tito's help, but our efforts would have been greater and of course also our sacrifices in blood. On the other hand the damages done by Tito after the war outweigh by far his services. . . .

I think, however, that Tito seems to be a little shrewder than the other dictators. I believe that he is aware that the heads of his friends in Russia, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, etc., are holding on only by very thin strings and if we were to offer him a good deal he would accept it and bring Jugoslavia into the Western orbit.

If we would offer him, for instance, to guarantee safety for his life and pay him—say—
